MINOR MENTION.

—For dishes and glassware go to the Wilcox Dept. Store.

The ice supply at this station is getting rather low, and it is said that in the future part of the refrigerators sars will be iced at Sidney.

A girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hall last night, and the well known knight of the razor is being burdened with congratulations to-day.

—Quite a number of young folks of the city enjoyed a card party at the Cody ranch Friday evening and were accorded that hospitality proverbial of the Goodman family.

—It is said that Alex. Adamson has been given the farmhandship of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway shops at Salt Lake City, a position that has a very lucrative salary attached.

—Last night was the regular meeting time of the city council, but a sufficient number of councilmen did not appear to constitute a quorum. There has so far been no meeting of the council this month.

—Men's gloves at the Wilcox Department Store.

—Harry J. Langdon came up from North Platte Thursday and took the required pharmaceutical examination and passed with honor, being at the head of the class. He has accepted a position at Monte Carlo.—Denver Press.

—It has leaked out that Tim T. Kelher, whose horns have grown harder in the past four years, again wishes to try conclusions with the venerable patriarch of the "bull team," in the event of his re-nomination for clerk of the district court.

—A. P. Kittell and Harry Kramph left last night for Monterey, Mexico, where they will be employed as civil engineers on the construction of the Mexican National Railway. They expected to leave about two weeks ago, but were detained by sickness in the family of Mr. Kittell.

—Paul Bartlett, of Lincoln, formerly book-keeper at the E. W. ranch, came up Saturday night to engage in chicken hunting. He found the birds rather scarce yesterday. Mrs. Bartlett will come up next week for a visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Murray of Cottonwood, L. E. Deemer, a brother of Judge Deemer, of the Iowa supreme court accompanied Mr. Bartlett.

—O. P. P. Stout, professor of civil engineering in the state university and also in the employ of the U. S. government, came up Saturday and took a measurement of the water flowing in the North Platte river, which he found to be but 200 cubic feet per second. On the 8th day of last June C. P. Ross, of this city, made a measurement of the water discharge and found it to be 16,000 cubic feet per second, or eighty times greater than at present. East of Grand Island there is scarcely any water in the Platte river.

—FOR SALE—Five brood sows. Inquire of R. A. McMurray, North Platte, Neb.

—Among the North Platte people who have so far left for Omaha to attend the State fair are: Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Norton, Mrs. H. C. Rennie, Miss Bertha VonGoetz, Mr. and Mrs. Field, Miss Sarah Grace, all the members of the Gordon cornet band, Mr. and Mrs. Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. Fonda, Will Reynolds and wife, Geo. Austin and family, Mrs. Sifton, Mrs. Dill, Misses Mabel and Frances McNamara, Fred Barracough and daughter, J. R. Minshall and daughter, John States and wife, Mrs. W. Edwards, Mrs. Chas. Hendy, Miss Nellie Hartman, Mrs. Schatz, Mrs. Keith, Mrs. Donaldson, John Hinman, Miss Mattie and Sam Donehower. (It was the intention of this writer to keep "tab" on those who attended the fair from this city but when told this morning that 125 persons had left on train No. 8 last night, he gave up in despair.)

—John J. Wilson has returned to the city after an absence of several months.

—Carpenters are repairing the Murphy house on Front street recently damaged by fire.

—On account of the Jewish New Year, the Boston Store will be closed on Thursday of this week.

—Mrs. Lu Huck is in a critical condition and the chances for her recovery are said to be rather faint.

—Geo. A. Tatum and Cora Ballard, both of Maxwell, were married by Judge Ray yesterday forenoon.

—A boy baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Morrison last night, which accounts for the extra smile O. V. is wearing.

—J. S. Hoagland has purchased the Andy Struthers' house on west Front street and will shortly remove his family thereto.

—Ladies' kid gloves, best quality, 95 cents a pair at the Wilcox Dept. Store.

—The "Jay Circus" company has been booked at Lloyd's for evening of the 27th inst. This play is said to be a very humorous one.

—An invoice of peaches from the Jackson & Roth fruit farm at Grand Junction, Col., was received in this city Saturday. They were very fine.

—Rev. D. Z. Foulk, who has been passing a short vacation at Colorado Springs, is expected home in time to hold regular services next Sunday.

—James McMichael, of this city, has completed the construction of the new school house in Nichols precinct. This is the finest school house in the valley.

—The "Milkmaid's Inter-state Convention" to be held on the 17th of next month, will prove a very interesting affair. Keep the date in mind, and make preparations to attend.

—Railroad men can find the Abetol fire and water proof gloves at the Wilcox Dept. Store.

—S. C. Wills, of Buchanan precinct, who stands a mighty good show of securing the republican nomination for county clerk, circulated among North Platte friends yesterday.

—Smoke Wright's Royal Sports and Havana Rose—5-cent cigars.

—An average of half a dozen emigrant wagons bound east pass through this city every day. It would seem that certain portions of the west are rapidly becoming depopulated.

—On Saturday last city treasurer Sorenson cleaned up the outstanding 1893 city warrants, with the exception of two or three small warrants that have not as yet turned up.

—H. Otten has been marketing in this city a large quantity of grapes raised on his farm west of town. In a few years the farmers of the valley will be able to supply the local demand for fruit.

—We are requested to state that there will be no gun club shoot this week, but on Saturday, Sept. 28th, a regular club shoot will be held, at which the gold medal will be awarded to the member making the best score.

—The "Deestrick Schule" will be presented to the North Platte public some time next month under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. This presentation of the country school as it was fifty years ago is a laughable creation, especially when in the hands of such people as will take part in it next month.

—At the morning service of the Presbyterian church last Sunday a letter of resignation was read from Rev. J. C. Irwin. This action on the part of Mr. Irwin is due to his physical condition which at present, at least, precludes the possibility of continuing the work. No action on the letter has been taken by the board of trustees and none is liable to be until at least a couple of weeks elapse, the trustees hoping that Mr. Irwin's condition will improve. Mr. Irwin is a very popular man both in and out of the pulpit, and THE TRIBUNE sincerely hopes that he may so improve as to be able to continue his work in our midst.

—Mrs. Fox, the dressmaker, has returned to town after a year's absence in Lincoln.

—Judge Ray on Saturday united in marriage Martin N. Jepsen and Cora E. Freeman, both of Maxwell.

—Supt. Barber says the attendance at the public schools yesterday was above the average on the opening day.

—The household goods of L. H. Woodmansee arrived from Cheyenne Monday and the members of this estimable family are now residents of North Platte.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Carnahan, formerly of this city but late years residents of Cozad, left the latter place last week for Pittsburg. Mr. Carnahan will visit the southern states with a view of finding a business location.

—The shipment of stock over the Union Pacific the last three days of last week were the heaviest of the season. The stock yards here were crowded with cattle and sheep which were unloaded to be fed.

—If you can't go to the State fair see the "bill of fare" for the chicken and waffle supper to be given this evening commencing at 5:30 in the Hinman building on Front street next door to Banks'. A royal repast will be served for 25 cents.

—Messrs. Graves, O'Neil, Woodhurst, Cronen, Ginn and Blood are getting ready for a hunting trip which they will make next week, their objective point being the lake country northwest of this county. They are having constructed a boat which they will use for duck shooting.

—The republican primaries held Saturday resulted in the election of the delegates named by the caucuses held in the First and Second wards. In the Third ward the delegates elected were W. C. Bogue, W. H. Johnston, U. G. Sawyer, C. F. Schermann, V. VonGoetz and Henry Yost, Jr.

—Mrs. Ruth Ward Kahn, a Leadville, Col., lady, was in the city yesterday soliciting assistance for scholarships for poor children. At present she has half a dozen young proteges in educational institutions who are maintained therein through her efforts. She had a residence of over a year in the Hawaiian Islands, and delivers a lecture upon those much misunderstood people. She has a date for this purpose in Lincoln to-night, and may return to this city in December for the same object.

—The republicans of the First ward have nominated the following precinct ticket: Assessor, Geo. W. Finn; constables, Joseph Weeks and W. H. C. Woodhurst; justices of the peace, P. H. Sullivan and Geo. Nauman; road overseer, G. A. Hesse. In the Third ward the ticket nominated is as follows: Assessor, Greeley Bundy; justices of the peace, C. F. Schermann and V. VonGoetz; constables, Greeley Bundy and U. G. Sawyer; overseer, David Scott; judges of election, Jas. Downie, G. G. Ensign, Chas. Simpson, Wm. Woodhurst, Henry Yost, Jr.; clerks of election, L. B. Isenhardt and W. H. Gould.

—Frank Sullivan returned from the east Saturday night and remained in town until last night when he went to Omaha to resume his position as clerk in the office of the general foreman of the Union Pacific shops. As has been stated in these columns, Frank won the one hundred-yard running race for light weights at Brockton, Mass., Sept. 2d, and of course he was warmly received and congratulated by our people while in town. The gold medal awarded him, and which he wears, is a handsome piece of artistic work, and he has good right to feel proud over this emblem which testifies that he is the champion of America in the light-weight 100-yard class.

CLINTON, The Jeweler.

The Lincoln County Exhibit.

From Monday Evening's Bee.
Lincoln county's exhibit calls out enthusiastic commendation as soon as seen. The first effect it has upon the visitor is to cause him to wonder whether going out the door and passing down the avenue he has found his way into the art hall. It is one of the exhibits that brings the managers into the building in an exceedingly challenging spirit with reference to the prize of the premium. Owing much of its excellence to the generous patronage of Colonel William F. Cody, a life-size statue in bluff sandstone of Buffalo Bill looks out from the magnificent archway of the facade, which is the facing of the display. The statue, which is the work of Swan Starken, a stone cutter of North Platte, is a wonderfully correct likeness of the original, the faithfulness of the copy being the subject of comment by almost every one who has seen Nebraska's popular cavalier.

Indicating the beneficent realization of the first promises of irrigation and as a prophecy of what is yet to come Buffalo Bill with his right hand is opening an irrigation lateral and in his left he is holding a piece of hose. The panels of the archway are filled with photographs of irrigated farms and orchards along the course of the North Platte canal and of scenes on the canal itself, while a large part of the cereal display comes from fields artificially watered. Crowning the arch is an immense stuffed buffalo, and about the columns of the facade, of which every smooth part is covered with beautiful designs in corn and small grain seeds, are wrapped the dried, green stalks of grain and grasses. "We have," said one of the managers, "brought two kinds of corn with us, as you will observe." He then pointed on one side to a cornstalk which since it came into the building has seemed ambitions to push its tassel through the roof, for it stands twenty feet high, and on the other to a stalk content enough with being shorter, because it carries an ear almost the size of Jim Corbett's thigh. The exhibit is in charge of W. L. Park, James McDonald, E. F. Seeburger and George J. Hunt. The facade is fifty feet long and stands about ten feet high.

—Quite a number of friends dropped in on Rev. A. W. Graves last evening and gave him a little surprise party, and it did indeed prove quite a surprise to the popular pastor. It was Mr. Grave's birth anniversary, and the occasion proved a very pleasant one. Refreshment tables were spread on the lawn, amid a liberal display of Japanese lanterns.

—Five weary looking bicyclists arrived from the west this morning and after taking a few hours' rest started on their journey east. Pedaling a wheel across Nebraska's dusty prairies these days can hardly be called sport.

—The new restaurant which opened in the Keith block a week or so ago has been closed on account of lack of patronage.

Edgar Donehower left this morning to accept a position as machinist at Little Rock, Ark.

Alex. Stewart, who had been stationed at Sidney for a couple of months as round-house foreman, returned to this city Sunday, Charley Peterson having so far recovered as to resume the foremanship.

J. J. Sullivan, who went to Boston to see his son Frank win the light-weight sprinting championship, returned home Saturday night. En route home Jack stopped over in New York and witnessed the races between the Defender and Valkyrie III.

Quite a number of our citizens leave for Omaha to-night, among them being D. C. Congdon and wife, Frank Redmond, Chas. Clinton, M. K. Barnum and wife, Mrs. W. L. Park and Mrs. E. F. Seeburger. The four latter will make the trip in Supt. Park's car.

THE TRIBUNE expected to receive, up to the hour of going to press, a telegram announcing that the Lincoln county exhibit had been awarded a premium; but up to 1 o'clock no such good tidings had been received. This county is pretty certain to get first or second place.

—Paul Bartlett and his friend unwittingly managed to get hold of the wrong bird-dog, but succeeded in getting away before the sheriff discovered the fact.

—A. L. Davis has just furnished the North Platte city schools with a couple of magnificent stoves.

—Unusually large luscious water-melons are being sold upon our streets.

—Bob Fulton is running a "push engine" at Wamsutter, Wyo.
